Very clear with a slight tint of straw. Delicious passion fruit bouquet. Crisp fruit on the tongue, with a touch of tropical fruit. Light spice, long aftertaste.

Côte du Rhône Villages Rouge 2001

Black fruit and cracked black peppercorns. Plump and polished, with spiced cherry, olive, and thyme.

In Hour Detroit, Master Sommelier Madeline Triffon says "This was the deceptive crowd-pleaser of the bunch [of wines in the tasting]—a raspberry popsicle up front, all fruit and spice. How lush and mouth-filling."
